NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The attention of our readers is specially directed to the following advertisements, which appear for the first time in our paper to-day.

Dry Goods.—Frank M. Gargan, U. S. Internal Revenue Notice, Business Man's Commercial College, Sheriff's Sale.

RAILROAD MEETING.—We are requested to state that a Railroad meeting will be held in Jacksonville, on July 17th inst. An enthusiastic turnout is expected. Prominent speakers will be present.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.—It is a duty the country owes to her fallen sons that a monument, however plain, should be erected to their memory. A beautiful freestone design has been shown us, that will cost hardly $3,000. The eastern side of the Court House Square is a suitable place. Who will move in this work? Who will suggest a plan?

Dr. Williams' Investigator and Hair Renewer for sale at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

Thompson's Tooth Soap, the best preparation for cleansing the teeth, at G. W. Roberts & Co's Drug Store.

No HARMERS.—We are frequently interrogated, and very properly, as to why the township authorities do not punish their lawless elements for publication? We are in profound ignorance on this question, unless it may be from the inclination that some people have to disobey the law and thereby incur its penalties.

BLACKBERRIES are selling at 15 cts. per gallon and plenty of them.

SMALL POX.—For the past few days the word has been circulated that several cases of small-pox existed among the colored population of our town. We have good authority for denying the statement. The disease prevalent is not that fearful malady but the more harmless chicken-pox. We tell this to revive the blackberry business!

For the best vinegar go to G. W. Roberts & Co's Drug Store.

TOWN CLOCK.—A glance at the cupola of our really elegant Court House convinces us of the practicality, and the usefulness, to say nothing of the ornamental, such an addition would be to the structure. Here is a capital chance for our present Commissioners to immortalize themselves. The tower of the bell in after years would ring pleasantly in their ears, and the groans of the tax-grubblers would ring as pleasantly from the present down into after years—and on after that!

A splendid assortment of Perfumery and Toilet Soaps at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

A TERRIBLE EVIL IN OUR MIST.—We allude to the places in our Borough where spirituous liquors are being sold under the name of a "wholesale business." It is indeed a "wholesale business," in one sense—that of making drunkards by the wholesale, and producing a wholesale demoralization of the community. We believe that these vendors of liquors are liable to indictment and conviction under the law. We have examined the law in regard to the matter and are satisfied that they have no right to sell liquors in any quantity or in any way whatever, under the license which they have. Why do not the proper officers see to the enforcement of the law?

For the best Paint Brushes go to G. W. Roberts & Co's Drug Store.

NICE CURE.—On Monday last we noticed the sale of one of the finest wool-clips yet put in market. It was sold by Mr. Andrew Johnson, of —, and bought by Mr. Jno. Hager, for Scott & Myers. The whole weight was between seven and eight hundred pounds, averaging two and three fourths to the fleece and was sold for fifty cents. The same firm on Monday last shipped four or five thousand pounds east.

Paints, dry and in oil, at G. W. Roberts & Co's Drug Store.

CANER.—Last week Dr. Black, of Washington and Jefferson College was presented with a beautiful, gold-headed, ebony cane, with this inscription: "Presented to James Black, D. D., Vice President of Washington and Jefferson College, as a token of esteem, by the Freshman Class of 1887." J. Lynn Reed, was the spokesman in behalf of the class, and in a very neat and appropriate speech tendered the present. The Doctor responded in a most happy manner.

Mishler's Herb Bitters for Dyspepsia, at G. W. Roberts & Co's Drug Store.

SOME OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES seem to think that the triumph of their cause depended, like the fate of Jericho, upon the amount of noise made—in these days of refinement and luxury, an article of real intrinsic merit is soon appreciated; hence the unbounded and unparalleled success of PLANTATION BITTERS.

This remedy has ever and always been found reliable. As a general stimulant and tonic appetizer it cannot be excelled. It is no doubt a sovereign remedy for stomachic disorders—for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and in stimulating a healthy appetite.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

CLOSE OF TERM.—The present term of Waynesburg College will close on Thursday, Sept. 12, 1887.

Barrett's Hair Restorative, for sale at G. W. Roberts & Co's Drug Store.

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.—We return thanks to our brethren of the press for their kind words. From the many who have thus noticed us we extract the following:

"The Waynesburg Republican is one of the best conducted and most enterprising weekly newspapers in the State, and is eminently worthy of encouragement and support from the Republicans of Greene County."—Pitts. Daily Gazette.

"Our friend Sayers has made a real live paper of the Republican, and battles manfully for the right against the heavy odds with which he has to contend in his own county. He deserves, and should receive a liberal support at the hands of the loyal men of Greene."—Washington Reporter.

"The Republican is radical in politics, and we regard it as one of the most interesting local sheets on our exchange list. It is well conducted, ably edited, and deserves a 'big' support from the Republicans of Greene County."—Morgantown Post.

We are glad to know that our labors are appreciated by those best qualified to judge, and will aim to improve as the paper grows older. Give us a liberal patronage and the Republican will show it!

P. & W. R. R.—Preparations have been made for the surveying of this road up the Monongahela Valley.

COMMISSIONER.—The Democratic County Convention nominated Wm. B. Stewart, of Morgantown, for this office.

A New Stock of Fine Toilet Soaps, just received, at Braden's Drug Store.

FRANK MCGURGAN is now opening the largest and best assortment of Fancy Goods and Notions ever brought to this town, all of which will be sold at the lowest rates. Drop in and examine the stock. Specialty in Fans, Dress Buttons, Perfumery, Cuff Buttons, Pins and Ear Bobs, &c., Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Hair Nets, Collars and Cuffs, Shirt Fronts, &c., in profusion.

All of Ayer's Patent Medicines, for sale at Braden's Drug Store.

A PLEA TO MINISTERS.—There are some clergymen who never appear to take note of the weather. The exercises are opened with a five minutes' prayer, followed by the reading of a Psalm and a portion of the New Testament, singing of a six-verse long meter hymn, the reading of the Song of Moses, a prayer of twenty minutes by the watch, singing of six more verses, a dull sermon of forty-five minutes, a four-verse hymn, another prayer of reasonable length, and a few pious notices, the doxology, and finally the benediction. Now when it is remembered that the days are hot, and the churches anything but cool, where serious close doors and compel the audience to breathe twice or three times the same atmosphere, is it any wonder that our thoughts are not upon heaven and heavenly things?

All of Dr. Jayne's Patent Medicines, for sale at Braden's Drug Store.

Our farmers have about finished gathering one of the most plentiful harvests they have been blessed with in many years. Corn, Oats and Potatoes are coming on nicely.

QUEER TASTE.—From a handsome, brick-red, the color of the Court House has been changed to a dull, m. Leobor.

The following is the programme of Commencement Exercises held in Washington on the 1st inst., with the names of the graduates. The productions are spoken of as being scholarly and marked by good delivery:

Latin Salutatory, (second honor) J. Hog. Wilson, Meridenburg, Pa.

English Salutatory, (third honor) J. V. Celars, Carrollton, Pa.

Philosophical Orator, (fourth honor) D. K. McKnight, Mt. Lebanon, Pa.

If your mother's first cousin's brother-in-law married your family physician's aunt, the family physician's last patient's eldest daughter's intended husband should inherit the property. See Cook on Gas Works. Guiber sells the cheapest goods in town and he don't care who knows it!

—Lindsey's Blood Searcher, for sale at Braden's Drug Store.

The Venango Citizen comes to us with four and a half long columns of Sheriff's Sales, &c. It is somebody evidently didn't strike "He," but will be severely hit when the auctioneer's hammer comes down.

WINTER COAL.—We observe that quite a number of our citizens are already laying in their supply of coal for winter use. We would advise one and all to do likewise, as prices will surely advance as cool weather approaches.

Died.

NOTICES OF MARRIAGES AND DEATHS inserted free, but all Testaments of Respect and Obituaries charged eight cents a line. The money must be advanced to secure their insertion.

HUDSON—Of Typhoid Fever at her residence in Newtown, Greene Co., Pa., on the morning of the 27th ultimo, Mrs. Sarah J. Hudson, consort of W. B. Hudson, in the 51th year of her age.

She was an exemplary wife and diligent mother. A stricken husband and sorrowing child, together with a numerous train of relations, weeps at the loss of the chances and changes of time; but their moderate sorrow is compared with those who have no hope. They can well exclaim:

"How lovely was her angel form,
Rich hair and lustrous eyes,
A gem to be a useful for earth,
God took her to the skies."

She early in the course and obtained pardon at the foot of the cross; and by pious deportment proved herself to be a truly christian character, both in principle and practice.

She bore her suffering with that patience, which always marks the child of God.

When aware that the moment of dissolution was drawing nigh, she requested that a spiritual adviser might be called in, with whom, Rev. Woodfield, she left the brightest evidence that she was in the "straight and narrow path" that leads to immortality. After prayer and singing she gave her spirit back to God, who gave it. Sleep on Sarah!

"Well sometimes dream your pleasant smiles
Still on us sweetly fall;
Your tones of love we'll faintly hear
Our names in sadness call.
We know that you are happy,
With your angel phantoms on;
But our hearts are very desolate,
To think that you are gone."
C. G. HANCOCK.

BABBITT—Sabbath last, Aug. 4th, Mrs. Susan Babbitt, of consumption.

CLARK—At the parents residence near Monroe, Iowa, on the 15th day of May, 1887, Willie, the son of T. W. and Lettie Clark, aged 13 days.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

SATURDAY, August 6, 1887.

The general markets have been comparatively dull during the past week, the volume of business, in the aggregate, being light, though in some articles, there is a fair holding trade. The depression prevails with good reason, too, as prices must keep still lower, both consumers and dealers are endeavoring to keep everything as low as possible, and it is this, more than anything else, that is retarding and restricting business.
